EXHIBIT: FROM SLAVERY TO FREEDOM: AFRICAN-AMERICANS AND MARITIME HISTORY 8:00 AM—3:00 PM, Visitor Center Lobby Gallery

Massachusetts is at the center of American maritime history. Some of it has been hidden until now. The sea also played a significant role in the history of African-Americans who worked in the industry. Maritime fortunes, based in part on slavery, helped found some of our most hallowed institutions. It is a fascinating and neglected story full of surprises and revelations.

This special exhibit is on loan from the Commonwealth Museum in Boston, courtesy of the Secretary of State. In the Lobby Gallery, open daily from 8:00 am to 3:00 pm.
Closing March 4, 2022.

WATER + GRANITE + GRAVITY= FALL RIVER 11:00 AM—11:30 AM., Meet in Visitor Center

Fall River was once the third largest city in Massachusetts with thriving factories and bustling piers on its waterfront. Without the water of the Taunton and Quequechan Rivers, the granite cliffs, and the power of gravity and the waterfalls that they produced, there would be no Fall River. The Park highlights this legacy with seven distinct granite way finders around the Park that commemorate the industry that has been here. This is a 30 -minute walk through waterfront history connecting the way finders and can be self-guided or even a scavenger hunt. Tours start at the Front Desk in the Visitor Center.

FACES OF FALL RIVER
8:00 AM—3:00 PM, Visitor Center Gallery

Meet the people of Fall River's past through a gallery of classic black and white photographs from the textile era. Featured are photos by labor activist/sociologist/photographer Lewis Hine of the immigrant women, men and children who worked the mills that made Fall River the premiere textile city in America. These are the photographs that inspired change in American labor laws and helped abolish child labor.
